THE UCJCI POLICY ON SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Did you know that the UCJCI has a Policy on Sexual Misconduct? For the past three weeks we have been serializing the Church's Child Care and Protection Policy, this week we take a look at the Policy on Sexual Misconduct. The Policy begins with a Preface that reads as follows:

PREFACE: This document contains a Policy for individuals who have experienced betrayal of trust within the United Church in Jamaica and the Cayman Islands because of sexual abuse, which includes sexual harassment, sexual assault, and child sexual abuse. The Policy also addresses the alleged perpetrator, holding him or her accountable to the principles and values inherent in the life of Christ. This Policy also outlines how these concerns may be addressed within the Church.

The contents of the Sexual Abuse Policy are grounded in a theological statement that reflects the basic faith beliefs of the United Church in Jamaica and the Cayman Islands. Sexual Abuse, exploitation and misconduct are destructive to God's people, and God calls upon the Church to resist injustice and to protect the vulnerable and the weak.

The United Church seeks to ensure that when a complaint of sexual misconduct is made, the voices of the complainant and the accused are listened to and heard and that pastoral care and support is offered to the affected individuals and their families. The Church has a duty of care that it must honour in relation to its members, adherents, employees and those who avail themselves of the services that the Church provides.

BIBLICAL & THEOLOGICAL BASIS:

- 1. God intends for all life, freedom from abuse and injustice; God created all human beings in God's image and desires for them mutual respect, care protection, and empowerment. (Genesis 1; Psalm 8; Matthew 10: 28-31.)
- 2. Sexual abuse, exploitation and misconduct are destructive to God's people. These things violate the love we know in Jesus and negate people's ability to develop and use their gifts of creativity and wholeness. We believe God continues to call God's people to love honour and to respect inherent in the life of Jesus. Where there is abuse, God requires justice, healing and reconciliation. (2 Corinthians 5:17 -21.)
- 3. God calls the Church to resist injustice. As such the Church is called to confess and repent of the times it has turned away from God's call to love and to serve others, and to protect the vulnerable, the weak and those with limited voice.
